According to the demand in the market, the site was redeveloped to a 23-storeyed integrated commercial and industrial building to suit all sorts of activities related to both industrial and/or office uses. Architectural languages for industrial building (such as metal frame, truss, hi-tech elements) plus languages for office-type building (such as curtain wall, articulated punched-hole-window external wall, etc) are blended together to express the contrast tension intrinsic therein and hence generating a new-styled building.

建築師就市場所需,將地盤發展為一幢樓高廿三層的工業貿易寫字樓,適合各行工業及商業用途。採用之設計,是利用工業及寫字樓兩種不同之設計語言和建築元素,例如使用現代化的玻璃幕牆,富工業色彩的金屬鋼架,彎形外牆等,巧妙地柔合在一起,創出一種嶄新的造形及效果。
